MELLON'S PLAN TO CUT TAXES GETS SUPPORT

Democrats Join With Republicans Voicing Approval

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Prompt congressional approval of the Treasury's new scheme of tax reduction was betokened today by an almost unanimous agreement among party leaders that the nation's tax payers should benefit as quickly as possible from the prosperous financial condition of the government.

Factional spokesmen of both houses saves only those of the western independent Republicans, were in virtual accord in sanctioning Secretary Mellon's plan of lopping a full one per cent from all normal schedules of income taxation.

Administration supporters were quick to speak their approbation and were joined by the Democratic leaders of the House. Senate Democrats agreed, too, but held out the possibility of demanding an even greater reduction than that advanced by the Treasury, conditioning their full approval upon more definite information as to prospective Federal needs and revenues than is now available.

Some Non-Committal
The western independents were non-committal, although it was indicated they would praise no serious objection. Their position has been that Treasury surpluses should be applied to a reduction of the national debt, on the theory that this results in decreased Federal disbursements, for interest and indirectly permits lowered taxes.

But while there was virtual unison upon the Mellon proposal, the attendant Treasury suggestion that legislation be enacted to permit the administration to alter tax rates under a scheme similar to the flexible provisions of the present tariff law, failed by far to evoke the same degree of unstinted commendation. The flexible tariff provisions have been the subject of a vigorous and protracted controversy in connection with the pending tariff bill. Meeting the determined opposition of the Democratic-Independent Republican coalition, President Hoover's desire for a continuation and an extension of the authority conferred upon him by the present tariff law was denied and the power now vested in him relegated to Congress.

Fight Flexible Plan
Similar opposition is expected to develop to the flexible plan for revising the tax schedules.

Under the Treasury scheme, the administration would be employed to alter tax rates to fit estimated government revenues and expenditures.

In this way, the Treasury could determine each January what the rates on incomes of the year just closed should be. This, in the opinion of Understudy Mills of the Treasury Department, would not interfere with the regular provisions of the revenue law nor preclude a permanent reduction in tax rates.

Secretary Mellon's new proposal for reduced taxes is intended to be of temporary effect. It is planned that the changed rates be embodied in a joint resolution of Congress which could be adopted without the delay that would arise from a general revision of the revenue laws. The resolution would be applicable only to taxes on incomes of the present calendar year and by its expiration automatically restore the present rates when taxes on incomes of 1930 become payable.

Illinois Village Sold At Auction

Muscatine, Iowa, Nov. 15.—(AP)—John Bishop today sold owned a third of his home village, Eliza, Ill., which he put up at auction yesterday.

First roads and rain conspired to keep away the expected crowd and only a handful of bidders appeared. Eliza is on a dirt road five miles from a hard highway.

Prior to the auction, Bishop owned all but four houses in the little village which his grandfather founded years ago. After deciding to move to Alton, Ill., Bishop advertised that he would sell the town.

Everything was sold yesterday, but a bidder for Bishop bought property to the amount of $9,800 which still remains the original owner's. Among the property sold were the town's community hall, several houses and lots, a 32-acre tract with the Bishop home, a barber shop, a pool hall, and various other small buildings and business establishments. The two churches and four other buildings not belonging to Bishop were not for sale.

Funeral Rockford Editor Tomorrow

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 15.—(UP)—Funeral services for Edgar E. Bartlett, publisher of the Rockford Register-Gazette and Morning Star, will be held here at 10:30 A. M. Saturday.

EARLY MOVE TO GET NEW BRIDGE HERE IS FAVORED

Galena Ave. Structure In Bad Condition: Needs Repairs

Agitation has again been started in favor of a new bridge across Rock river to replace the Galena avenue structure which is in a bad condition. Some of the members of the city council favor taking immediate steps to bring about the replacement of the present structure with a street-wide bridge at the earliest possible date. Others of the council are in favor of waiting until the next session of the legislature before taking action.

Commissioner George Campbell, who is one of the staunch supporters for the proposition of starting immediately upon preparing plans and specifications, favors the completion of all plans and having all of the necessary arrangements completed ready for presentation to the legislature as soon as it convenes.

The floor of the present bridge has been deteriorating quite rapidly during the summer and several bad spots now appear in the creosoted block flooring. Water, which seeped between and under the blocks, have caused them to swell and bulge badly in several places. Members of the council fear that this condition will become much worse during the winter and early spring as contractors contend that flooring cannot be repaired satisfactorily in patches and that it would be necessary to lay a complete new floor, which would entail a great deal of expense. Those who have examined the under-structure of the bridge contend that it is in bad condition in many places and it is generally considered that to repair the bridge would require a large expenditure of money and that the construction of a new street wide structure would in the end be the most economical and satisfactory manner in which to solve the problem.

Ragan Still Under Guard In Hospital

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 15.—(UP)—William R. Ragan, Chicago business man who is held here charged with the attempted robbery of the Fisher State Bank, has not asked for an attorney to defend him, and it is possible, police said today, that he will waive preliminary examination and be held to the January grand jury.

Ragan, superintendent of the Linde Air Products Co. plant at Chicago, has been identified as the man who held up banks at Grant Park, Ill., and Oxford, Ind., and who attempted to hold up one in Fisher, his home town.

Physicians at the county hospital where he is confined under guard suffering from two bullet wounds said to have been received in the Fisher holdup last Friday, reported Ragan is better condition today but still too weak to be removed to the county jail. For this reason a preliminary hearing may not be held until next week.

Guatemala Volcano Takes 400 Lives

These aerial photos tell the story of how a relentless river of lava and ashes poured from the 12,300-foot crest of the Santa Maria volcano in Guatemala, killed 400 persons and engulfed wide areas. At the top you see it as it belched fire and molten rock in the first serious eruption in 27 years. Center, the lava, six feet deep, is pictured rolling down through the countryside and throwing off clouds of steam where it filled the depressions of a second largest in Guatemala, from which inhabitants fled when sulphur gas and a rain of ashes from the crater became menacing.

D. H. S. FAT STOCK JUDGING TEAM OFF FOR KANSAS CITY

Illinois State Champions To Compete In National Contests

Members of the Dixon high school fat stock and meat judging teams left this morning, accompanied by Prof. John Weiss for Kansas City, where they have been entered in a national judging contest. The judging contest will be held Monday of next week. Fat stock judging will take place in the forenoon and meat identification in the afternoon.

The members of the local fat stock team, who won the state championship at Champaign last June, are: Arthur Schick, Tryon Rosbrook and Edward Lawton. These three boys will represent Illinois at the contest in Kansas City next week. Lloyd Breisch accompanied the team as alternate member. The team will also be entered in a meat judging contest. This will consist of identification of different cuts of meat, the customary retail offerings of beef, pork, mutton and veal. The members of the meat identification teams are: Lloyd Breisch, Arthur Schick and Tryon Rosbrook with Edward Lawton as alternate.

Prof. Weiss of the agricultural department of the high school has worked hard in preparing this team of boys who have already captured the state championship and are now in Kansas City contesting for national honors. It is not the first time that the Dixon high school has been recognized in national contests such as the one which opens Monday in Kansas City, as Prof. Weiss has turned out other championship teams since his coming to Dixon and taking over the agricultural instruction in the high school. While he has worked tirelessly in bringing the team to that point of perfection which entitles them to compete for state honors, the members of the team are also due a great deal of credit for the interest shown in their studies and the fellow students hope that they may be successful in capturing the national honors at Kansas City next week.

NEXT 24 HOURS CRUCIAL PERIOD FOR SEC. GOOD

Secretary's Vitality is Amazing To His Physicians

Washington, Nov. 15.—(AP)—The next twenty-four hours are expected to prove the crucial period in the condition of Secretary James W. Good of the War Department who is dangerously ill after an emergency operation for gangrenous appendicitis.

By the close of that period, his physicians expect the stricken cabinet officer to show some definite trend for the better or for the worse, and in spite of a serious turn last night, are encouraged to look for the former by their patient's general vitality and regular pulse and blood pressure. At the same time, however, they make no effort to minimize the seriousness of his condition. Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Boone, President Hoover's personal physician, who with Secretary Willbur, a physician of note himself, took the War Secretary to the hospital on Tuesday night, has been in close attendance. He is a warm friend of the cabinet officer and in addition has been instructed by President Hoover to put himself entirely at Mr. Good's service.

The President keeps in close touch with the Secretary's condition. Periodic messages and immediate word of any change in his condition are transmitted to the Chief Executive through his secretaries.

The Secretary's physicians said they hoped the improvement might continue without complications but it was said that Good was still in a critical condition.

Early this morning he seemed to have regained strength to some extent. The principal danger at the present, his physicians said, was from complications and added he would be watched closely to ward off pneumonia.

The vitality and resisting power which the Secretary has shown has been a source of amazement to his physicians.

It was said an operation such as his ordinarily would have proved immediately fatal and they were very hopeful that Mr. Good would continue to show his resisting qualities.

GAS FROM PAINT ON BATTLESHIP FATAL TO TWO

Seven Other Sailors on New York Overcome By Fumes

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Gas fumes, apparently spontaneously generated from paint in an enclosed compartment on the battleship New York caused nine men to be overcome and two of them died.

The two men who lost their lives were Lieut. R. H. Hollenbeck of Chicago, who had gone into the compartment, known as a "blister," to inspect it, and Boatswain Mate Thomas George Weber of New York, who attempted to rescue him. Both men fell about 40 feet, suffering injuries from which they died.

Seven enlisted men also were overcome in the attempt to rescue the two men. It was not until pure air was forced into the compartment through a hose that the actual rescue was effected. At the hospital today it was said the seven probably would recover.

The New York, which is the flagship of Rear Admiral H. H. Christie, commanding battleship division three of the scouting fleet, had been undergoing modernizing, which included the construction of "blisters," a sort of double hull for protection against submarines.

Dead Man Inspector.
The "blisters" had been painted and closed. The gas is believed to have been generated by paint and metal during the time they had been closed. Lieut. Hollenbeck had been detailed to inspect them after the air vents had been opened.

The seven sent to the hospital were: Ewing Ledbetter, Coxswain, Livingston, Tenn.

Morris Albert, Seaman, 253 East Madison St., Louisville, Ky.

Arthur Raymond Nazzengast, Seaman, 399 Norvin Avenue, Detroit.

Harry Burnett, Ship Fitter, 2704 South Main street, Los Angeles.

William Lambert Stanford, Shipfitter, Philadelphia.

Wilkins R. Herrin, Seaman, Huntsville, Ala.

A. C. Aherns, Ship Fitter, address not available.

McGowan, Hollenbeck was married and his wife was to have joined him today.

HEROIC SENATORS DEFY DEATH FOR THE DEAR PEOPLE

Endanger Health in Continued Battle Over Tariff Bill

BY PAUL E. MALLON.

United Press Staff Correspondent. Washington, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Against the advice of its physician, the Senate started another 12-hour workday with the tariff bill at 10 A. M. today, plodding ahead with the agriculture rate schedules.

Undismayed by its refusal to take a 10 day or two week recess for health purposes, Dr. Royal S. Copeland, the former by their patient's general vitality and regular pulse and blood pressure. At the same time, however, they make no effort to minimize the seriousness of his condition. Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Boone, President Hoover's personal physician, who with Secretary Willbur, a physician of note himself, took the War Secretary to the hospital on Tuesday night, has been in close attendance. He is a warm friend of the cabinet officer and in addition has been instructed by President Hoover to put himself entirely at Mr. Good's service.

Copeland believes the continuous work of many Senators on the tariff for almost a year has brought them to a physical condition which is responsible for the unprecedentedly intense debates of the last few weeks when Senators called each other "worse than Communists," "sons of the wild yak" and such things. He has gone so far as to warn them he can see the next who are to die from this orgy of work, a majority of the Senators, refusing to follow his leaders, has declined persistently to adjourn.

Copeland to Fight.
Copeland is preparing a resolution to stop work on the tariff bill tomorrow until the regular session starts, Dec. 2. He has taken the matter out of the hands of the Democratic tariff leader, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, whose motion to adjourn a week from Saturday lost by a vote of 51 to 34.

Leaders of all factions agreed it would be physically impossible to pass the tariff within two months, but many fear the wrath of the people may be turned upon them if they adjourn without using every available moment.

For two months the Senate has been working on the tariff from 10 A. M. until 6 P. M. each day. The first night session was instituted last night after repeated efforts to arrange an adjournment had failed. Many agricultural rates were adopted.

The Finance committee recommendations on milk and cream were adopted; cheese was increased to be a pound, 3c more than existing law; live chickens, ducks and turkeys were raised to be a pound, an increase of 5c over existing law; a duty of three-tenths of a cent a pound on soy bean oil cake was adopted and the duties on rice were increased.

Peoria Bank Held Up This Afternoon

Peoria, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Three bandits who held newspapers in front of their faces to prevent identification, held up the South Side Trust & Savings Bank this afternoon and escaped with between $9,000 and $10,000 in cash.

They forced five employees and two customers to lie on the floor while they rifled cash drawers and vaults.

Miss Bernadette Clark, an accountant, endeavored to rise while the holdup was in progress but one bandit stepped on her neck and pinned her to the floor.

Lyle Howett, another employee, reached for a gun but was knocked down by a blow in the mouth.

Just before the robbery a false alarm was turned in at a fire-station adjoining the bank to decoy firemen out of the vicinity.

No one saw the trio escape but it was believed they had an accomplice with an automobile waiting outside the building.

Jesse Hodges Laid To Rest Yesterday

The remains of the late Jesse Hodges, former resident of Dixon and farmer of near Shaw station, were laid to rest in Woodside cemetery at Lee Center yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hodges was killed instantly by the first of the week at Gary, Ind. when he was struck by an automobile while crossing a street. The deceased was born at Shaw station, September 22, 1869 and had lived in this locality all of his life. His mother, Mrs. Ellen S. Hodges and a sister, Mrs. Mattie Lyons, both of Amboy, survive to mourn his sudden passing.

Custom Agents Held For Manslaughter

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Nov. 15.—(UP)—Charges of manslaughter, second degree, were made today against H. J. Whitman and E. J. Watrous, the two customs agents involved in the fatal shooting yesterday of Ernest Fabrey, a Pullman Pullman worker, who was shot allegedly when he attempted to subdue the federal men with an auto.

Subj. Paul of liquor.

District Attorney William D. Ingham of St. Lawrence county announced the pair would be arraigned today in both federal and city courts.

"Killed Wrong Man" Says Note In Auto
Benton, Ill., Nov. 15.—(AP)—Claude Jennings, 35, of Mt. Vernon is believed to have been murdered near here last night as the result of a case of mistaken identity.

According to police here the truck which Jennings was driving for a wholesale plumbing concern of Mt. Vernon was found in an open field four miles west of here on route 14 bullet riddled. Scribbled on a piece of paper was a note left on the driver's seat saying:

"We are sorry we have got the wrong man. We thought it was another truck. We will take care of the body for our own protection."

Stocks Depression Won't Hurt Business
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—(UP)—In a front page editorial, Paul Block, publisher of the Milwaukee Sentinel and a chain of newspapers, assured his readers today that the stock market depression will have little effect on business generally.

Block pointed out that many leading industries are planning expansion programs in the face of the depression and said, "after all the great majority of people have been in on way involved in these Wall Street transactions and their earnings are not only as large as a year ago but in many instances larger."

PROFIT-TAKING LAST HOUR HIT SOME OF ISSUES

The Close Is Well Over Yesterday's: Saturday Holiday

BULLETIN

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Governors of the New York Stock Exchange today voted to continue the abbreviated trading schedule next week in order to permit member firms to catch up with the large accumulation of work piled up this week. The Exchange will be open from 10:00 A. M. to 1 P. M. from Monday to Friday, inclusive, and closed all day Saturday.

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Heavy profit taking swept over the New York Stock Exchange in the last half hour of trading today and carried scores of issues $1 to $10 below their earlier high levels, which ran as high as $33 a share above yesterday's final quotations.

U. S. Steel common, which had sold as high as $167.25, fell back to $164.25, a net gain for the day of $4.25. General Electric fell from $201 to $198, up $3; John Manville from $119.25 to $117, up $12; and American Telephone from $222 to $219.87, up $2.62 net.

No Trading Saturday
Closing quotations of some other leading shares follow:

Standard of New Jersey ex dividend $60.75, up $2.75; New York Central, ex rights $171, up $8; American Can, $105.50 ex dividends up $4; Radio $32.50 off fifty cents; General Motors $41.25 up $3.25; Anaconda Copper $83.37, up $4.12; Union Pacific $218, up $4.12; Westinghouse Electric, $123, up $4.30; Sears Roebuck $93, up $6.12; Columbia Gas $65.50, up $2.75; and Bethlehem Steel $86.37, up $1.81.

The committee on arrangements of the Stock exchange ruled that although their market will be closed for trading tomorrow, members of firms must be open from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. for the purpose of clearing up hang over business which could not be completed during the week's rush of trading.

OFFER ENORMOUS REWARD FOR CAPTURE OF THUGS

$400,000 In Money And Gems Loot Of Seven Bold Bandits

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 15.—(UP)—Search for seven bandits who staged a spectacular hold-up of 18 socially prominent persons in the home of John L. Carson, Jr., a broker, at Snyder, near here, escaping with approximately $400,000 in gems and money, was centered in Buffalo today.

The robbery occurred at the height of a party given last night in honor of Courtland Van Cleaf and his fiancée, Eleanor Cameron of Cameron, Texas, who are to be married soon. Both were among the guests and were robbed.

The seven bandits, all masked in white handkerchiefs and each carrying two guns, entered by a French window and ordered all the guests to back to the wall and raise their hands. Several of the guests believed the hold-up to be a prank and joked with the bandits. Mrs. Gibson Gardner was kicked and thrown under a table when she attempted to tear the mask from one of the men. W. Hamilton Gardner, broker, was struck across the face and threatened when he remarked that one of the bandits' revolvers was "quite nice looking."

Took Valuable Jewels
Mrs. Raymond Allan Van Cleaf, belonging to one of the oldest families in this city, was robbed of a triple strung necklace of matched pearls reported to be worth $250,000. Mrs. Philip Metz lost gems worth approximately $45,000.

Police reported the bandits tore watches, rings, shirt studs and neck "pins from all the guests. Several of the gang entered upper rooms and made off with evening coats and wraps.

Before leaving, the bandits forced all guests to lie on the floor and cautioned them to stay in that position until several minutes had elapsed.

Frank Baird, millionaire builder of the Peace Bridge running from Buffalo to Fort Erie, Ont., and uncle of Miss Cameron, offered $5,000 reward for the capture of each bandit alive and $10,000 for each of their dead bodies.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Last night a large and appreciative audience was present in the church and were delighted with the musical service. The musical saw the vitro-harp playing "The Mystery of Life" and the magnificent duet so sweetly rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Kindig, "Do You Love My Lord?" were greatly enjoyed by everybody.

The children's services have more than doubled since Tuesday and the children are having a royal time.

Mr. Marshall spoke on "The Shut Door" in Matthew, 25th chapter tenth verse. He said:

This is a typical eastern wedding scene. They do things more leisurely in the east than in the west and time is true to the times and climate. We are introduced to the wedding party and their welcomers but five of them were wise and five were foolish. They all seemed alike but they were not. The foolish had failed to prepare. They had a profession but no possession and while they went to secure their oil, the bridegroom came and the door was shut, and they were left bewailing on the wrong side of the door. Within the house was feasting—without dismay—and death.

There is an old story told of the Peris, a class of angels shut out from Heaven in the great rebellion. One, lingering near the gates of Heaven, asked the attendant angel if there was no hope of an entrance and the answer came:

"The Peri yet may be forgiven who brings to this eternal gate the gift that is most dear to Heaven."

She brought back to the gate the blood of the patriot but, acceptable as that blood, it had no power to open the gate. She brought again the ray of light that had awakened a baby's smile and lightened a prisoner's dungeon but these had no power upon the shut gate. Then watching a robber broken down into tears by a child's prayer, she caught the tears of repentance as they fell and the enraptured Peri knew:

"twas Heaven's gate to hail 'mid 'twas a bright smile the angel threw from Heaven's gate to hail that tear.

Her harbinger of glory near." and the Peri entered in her task completed. There is need for none to be left without for Christ is the open door and He invites us to enter in. Do not let the wall of the prophet of old be our wall.

"The Harvest is past, the summer is ended and we are not saved." This afternoon at 4:15, children's meeting. Tonight at 7:15 prayer meeting in the east room. Gospel service at 7:30 p. m. Subject: "The Cross of Flame." Tonight is surprise night. Come. The Kindigs will lead the musical service—trombone, vitro-harp, marimba, solos, duets, new choruses and songs. Come along and help us sing.

No meetings on Saturday. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.—Adult lesson, "Living with Persons of Other Races." The Kindigs will be with us.

Morning service at 10:45. Theme: "The Tragedy of the Unrecognized." Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. in the basement. Junior B. Y. P. U. in east room. Mr. and Mrs. Kindig will speak and sing at both services.

Evening service at 7:30 when the pastor will speak on "Respectable Sinners."

The Kindigs are going to be with us every afternoon and evening (except Saturday) till Sunday, Nov. 24th. Do not miss hearing these sweet gospel singers and musicians.

Monday night the subject will be "The Hands of Destiny."

The Agoga class will hold their monthly social evening beginning with a scramble supper at 6:30 p. m. on Tuesday night. A full attendance is requested.

Come with us and we will do thee good for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel.

Chicago Attorney's Home Was Bombed

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Terrorists struck at the city administration today when they bombed the south side home of James Breen, First Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Breen and his wife were thrown from bed by the explosion, but were not hurt. The property damage was estimated by Breen to be $5,000. Several patients in the Evangelical Deaconess hospital nearby were awakened and frightened by the detonation.

Breen said he had received no threats and was unable to account for the attack. He suggested it probably was the work of someone whose enmity he had incurred in his duties in the city's legal department.

The bomb was exploded on the front porch of the Breen bungalow shortly after midnight.

A Most Successful Dancing Party

The picnic supper and dancing party at the Elks club last evening was attended by over 200 and was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the current social season of the lodge.

Series of Parties Most Enjoyable

A group of young Dixon matrons have been entertaining this week with a series of delightful parties at the Coffee Shop. On Wednesday they entertained with a prettily appointed bridge luncheon, the hostess being Mrs. Frank Gorham. Mrs. Royal Fitzsimmons, Mrs. William Root, and Miss Ruth Carney. The decorations were in two lovely shades of yellow, and the flowers, which were chrysanthemums, were also in these shades. Last evening the same hostesses entertained at a bridge dinner at the Coffee Shop which was a most enjoyable affair.

On Wednesday Mrs. Will Killian of Sterling was awarded the favor for high honors at bridge; Mrs.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY

In speaking of a person's faults, pray don't forget your own. Remember those with homes of glass. Should never throw a stone. If we have nothing else to do but talk of those who sin, 'Tis better you commence at home and from that point begin.

I'll tell you of a better plan. You'll find it work full well. Just try your own defects to cure. Before of other's faults, I tell. And though I sometimes hope to be no worse than some I know, My own shortcomings bid me let The faults of my neighbors go.

Then let us all—should we commence To slander friend and foe, Think of the harm one word may do To those we little know. Remember, curses, like chickens, Return to roost at home. So don't speak of other's faults Until we've none of our own.

Alma Rubens to Be Released From State Hospital

Los Angeles, Nov. 15.—(AP)—Alma Rubens, stage and film actress may be released within a week from the Patton State Hospital where she has been confined for four months undergoing treatment for narcotic addiction. News of Pola Negri, Mme. Curie, and Kegs American Gold Paris, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Pola Negri returned to France today to be divorced, but she wept and bewailed the fact that forced her to part from her Georgian Prince, Serge Mdivani, protesting that she still loved him. Clad in black from head to foot, the actress broke down and wept copiously in the arms of newspapermen when the liner De France arrived at Le Havre.

"It is hard," she said, "to come back to a land where I was happiest, only to await a divorce. But I thank God that divorce exists. I loved Serge greatly and I still love him. Divorce will be a great wrench but divorces are the only solution when two can not live peacefully together."

"Men in general are intensely selfish, usually taking everything and giving nothing."

Miss Negri's tearful pathos left reporters wondering whether she would not intervene in the divorce action and ask that it be suspended, but Prince Mdivani insisted to the United Press that he expects his freedom shortly.

"The sooner the better," he said. Miss Negri admitted that she had lost heavily in the Wall Street slump. "It was the most severe shock of my life," she said. "Happily I still have properties in Los Angeles and in France."

Her property in France consists of a chateau and 100 acres valued roughly at 1,000,000 francs ($39,000).

Miss Negri plans to rest at her chateau, which is near Paris, and then take a motor trip until Christmas, returning to America late in January. She will come back to Europe again under a contract to make three talkies.

The De France brought a shipment of 51 kegs of American gold, which aroused as much curiosity as Miss Negri and Madame Curie, returning from her American trip. Madame Curie handed out a type-written statement expressing gratitude for the treatment she received in the United States.

French Reduce Field For Women Workers

PARIS (AP)—The women have done their work so well they have worked themselves out of their jobs.

Just as they felt the gray-bearded senators would soon vote the often rejected suffrage bill, men in public service have hit them in the bread-and-butter department.

Three branches of the government have blocked women's progress toward conquest of male jobs. The prefecture of the Seine, where three of four employees are women, has barred women from future service examinations. The Senate recently did likewise. The post, telephone and telegraph service has set up a new barrier to prevent women getting "equal pay for equal work," with the men.

Admittedly, women have had better grades than men in the civil service tests. It is said, by some of the women, that the prefecture examines this year gave the women much stiffer examinations than they did the men, hoping to flunk them out of competition.

In any case, women again had most of the higher grades and had to be certified on the eligibility list. Now the men, to make the working world safe for the male, have barred women. "until the balance is restored," which is taken to mean that women can't have more than half the jobs.

Held Poverty Party At Club Plaza

New York, Nov. 15.—(AP)—With the stock market collapse as their inspiration, a group of Park Avenue society folk held a "poverty party" at the Club Plaza last night at which guests wore old clothes and ate frankfurts and sauer kraut.

Their clothing, however, merely was "old" in a relative way.

Dowagers appeared in gowns of a year ago; the younger women in gowns of last month, and men, who apparently had no old clothing, wore ordinary business suits instead.

The food, which at the better Park Avenue affairs would be something startling in buffet, was served from ordinary tables covered by red cotton cloths. Light was by candle.

The sponsors of the affair explained its purpose was not to have a bit of pleasantries at the expense of poverty, but just an occasion for a bit of good clean fun. It was observed, records the New York Times, that at midnight, the guests were pelting each other with French bread.

Roast Duck Dinner Monday Evening

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Abe Miller, who reside north of Grand Detour entertained at a delicious roast duck dinner in honor of James Sadler, an old friend, celebrating his birthday. John Connors of Franklin Grove, another friend, was a guest also at the dinner and all spent a quiet happy evening afterwards and as the guests departed for their homes, all wished Mr. Sadler many happy returns of the day.

Pastel Tea Yesterday Was a Most Decided Success

The Pastel Tea, sponsored by the True Blue S. S. class of the Methodist Sunday school, was a most delightful affair, and was held yesterday in the main part of the church. The program was well attended and proved decidedly entertaining.

Mrs. Fahrney of Polo, accompanied by Miss Reed, sang three numbers, which were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Fahrney has a rich soprano voice and a charming personality.

The two Polo ladies gave great pleasure in their entertaining selection. The pantomime "Mellow Drama," was staged effectively in a Spanish castle, with an off-stage voice interpreting the action.

Dean Rey played two trombone numbers with Mrs. Merrill accompanying, which were much appreciated.

"Hats of Other Days," a novelty song, presented by the Misses Trautman, and Helmick, and Mesdames Dick and Carpenter was received with much enthusiasm.

After the program the guests adjourned to the S. S. room, which was artistically decorated in the pastel shades with pink and green predominant. Lighted tapers and clever festooning of crepe paper, also cut flowers in soft colors created a most festive atmosphere.

The guests were seated at small tables, which added to the informality and sociability of the occasion.

A neat little sum was realized from the generous offering, and the financial fund which the class has undertaken as a project was materially reinforced.

The Misses Gladys and Viola Vaage furnished music during the serving.

Mrs. A. G. Durkes Honored at Party

Last evening Mrs. J. M. Batchelder delightfully entertained eight guests at dinner and bridge, honoring Mrs. A. G. Durkes of Omaha, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Durkes of Omaha, Neb., are guests at the W. C. Durkes home in Dixon.

Chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers were employed in the lovely decorations at the Batchelder home last evening. At bridge Mrs.

H. A. Roe was presented the favor for high honors. Mrs. A. G. Durkes received the guest favor.

Dinner Honored Dr. Hopkins' Birthday

Mrs. R. L. Hopkins of Sterling delightfully entertained Wednesday evening with a birthday party in honor of her husband. Autumn flowers in gorgeous colorings were the decorations. Guests from Dixon included Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Clevidence and Dr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss. Attorney and Mrs. John Stager of Sterling were guests.

State Board Meeting War Mothers Held in Chicago

Mrs. John Strub, state president, Department of Illinois American War mothers, conducted a board meeting in Chicago Tuesday, Nov. 12th. The meeting was held in the hall occupied by the Rainbow Chapter of Chicago. Mrs. Clea Bunnell, state corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Lee Eastman, state emblem and marker chairman, accompanied Mrs. Strub. The members of the party, including Mrs. J. W. Watts, were taken to Chicago by Lee Eastman in his car.

It so happened that the national executive board of the society also met in Chicago and the Illinois chapter felt greatly honored when the ladies of the executive board came to this, the first meeting of the Illinois board, the members, including Mrs. Virgil McClure of Lexington, Ky., national president of the American War Mothers; Mrs. Mary Spence of Milwaukee, past national president; Mrs. Margaret McClure, of Kansas City, second national past president; Mrs. Margaret Howell, first national vice president; Mrs. Wm. Dowell Oldham, national corresponding secretary. Each gave a short and very interesting talk, congratulating Mrs. Strub, and wishing her much success in her work. The past president, Mrs. McClure, asked for co-operation. Since the success of the National depends so much on the interest taken in the work by the state departments.

She said her hands were tied, s' was blind folded and walking backward unless she had the co-operation of all the departments. She like President Hoover emphasized moral disarmament will do more toward peace than navy disarmament.

She sent her love to each chapter president with best wishes for the year's work. She is serving under the cross and under the flag. Past President McClure wished that each today prove to be one greater than yesterday and each tomorrow greater than today. After a short recess in which to meet the visiting ladies an excellent lunch was served by the members of the Rainbow chapter.

Three past presidents of Illinois chapter were elected on the advisory board of Illinois. The next meeting of the state board will be in Dixon in April, when a special effort will be made to have a "Get Together" meeting. There was an excellent attendance at this first board meeting, and every one seemed eager to do her part in the year's work. President Strub left much encouraged by the approval of her co-workers and has many plans for the year's work.

THIS NATION IS RADICAL.

It is pretty generally agreed that America is a conservative nation. But it happens that we really are pretty nearly the most radical people on earth.

Of course, we don't elect Communists to the presidency, or go in for Russian measures in regard to industry and trade. But we have definitely broken with tradition. Of all nations, we are the readiest to follow new paths.

Consider just one instance, taken from the world of industry.

Through all ages, since the first one-room manufacturing establishment was built, it had been agreed that an industrialist, to make money, had to charge as high a price for his goods as the traffic would bear, and pay as low a wage to his employees as he could possibly get them to accept. The margin between his expenses and his income was his profit; it was an unquestioned axiom that he could get rich only by keeping this margin as wide as possible.

But America bred a crew of industrial radicals who reversed the old axiom and found that the way to profits was through low prices and high wages. Narrow the margin of profit and you make more money; this was their new slogan. Since the birth of the industrial era, no more radical step was ever taken. And it was the work of "conservative" America!

You could write volumes in the same vein. When did Europe find anything so radical as our system of installment buying, for instance? Europe, for years, worked on the theorem, "the prosperity of the masses depends on the prosperity of the big industries." Our radical business men have reversed that so that it reads, "the prosperity of the big industries depends on the prosperity of the masses."

Of course, we are still conservative in our politics. But politics is relatively unimportant. It is the business man who rules the country—not through courts or legislative chambers, but through factories and salesrooms. And the American business man is a radical.

ABOUT THOSE TAXI METERS.

Did you ever sit in a taxicab, watch the meter tick out the ever-rising toll, and mutter to yourself, "the darn thing's crooked?"

Probably you have—most of us have. But, if you did, the chances are you accused the little mechanical fare-assessor unjustly.

Ralph W. Smith, inspector of weights and measures for the U. S. Bureau of Standards, has spent more than two years making scientific tests of taxi meters. Now he reports that most of them are very accurate and fair. The dishonest meter, he says, is the exception rather than the rule.

And that seems to settle that question.

HOME REMEDIES.

A tiny girl in Detroit had paralysis. Her parents heard that a "lime bath" was an excellent thing for that affliction. So they filled a tub with boiling water, put a quantity of lime in it and put the girl in a chair directly over it. The fumes, instead of curing her, killed her.

Here is a warning against "home remedies" that everyone should take to heart. In this advanced age there is no reason why anyone should try to cure any disease in that manner. If there is sickness in your family and some friend or acquaintance suggests some amateur cure, ignore the suggestion and call a doctor. It is the only safe way.

Consider the street car conductor. He leads a simple life, yet he is about the only man in the world who can tell the ladies where to get off.

The Hawley-Smoot tariff bill places chestnuts on the free list. There are too many old chestnuts in this country for the foreign market to compete with.

A Chicago woman says her husband gave her a dime a day on which to run the house. She didn't tell how much she saved out of it, however.

The reporter sent to cover the recent wedding of a woman weighing 549 pounds and a man weighing 563 pounds drew a rather heavy assignment.

Two Texans have started batting a croquet ball to New York. If they only would push it with their noses, chewing 100 sticks of gum at the same time, that would be news.

George Bernard Shaw postponed his 73rd birthday. But you can't beat the income tax that way, George.

Some men find obscurity naturally and others become the husbands of well-known women.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The big man finally had his fill of food and sat up very still. At last he said, "I'm sleepy and I think I'll take a nap. But first I'd really like to know just where you boys intend to go." "I'll tell you," shouted Scouty, as he climbed into his lap.

"You see, we're Tinymites," said he. "And we're as carefree as can be. We merely travel 'round the world and see the wondrous sights. We're little, but we're pretty strong. All through the day we move along. Then, when we're tired we always get our rest and sleep at night."

"Adventure is the thing we crave and we'd be glad if you could pave the way for us to take a trip that's different than the rest. It's true that we have been real bad, but that has made us all feel sad. From now on we will be real good. At least we'll do our best."

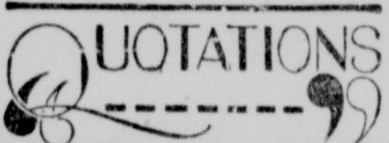

"That's fair enough," the big man said. "But now I'm going to rest my head. Don't anybody wake me. Don't you let me hear you peep. When I wake up I'll gladly do what e'er I can for all of you." And then he flopped down on a cot and soon was fast asleep.

For 'bout an hour he slept and then he woke and loudly cried, "Now then, you Tinymites kindly follow me. I have a treat in store. We'll have to walk, if you don't mind." He left, with all the bunch behind. The Tinymites walked and walked and walked and wondered what 'twas for.

They finally reached a great big tree. The big man said, "Now, boys, watch me. I'll show you how I put my great big husky hands to use." He grabbed some bark and held it tight. Then came a rather startling sight. The big man gave the bark a jerk and pulled the big piece loose.

PIKE'S PEAK DISCOVERED

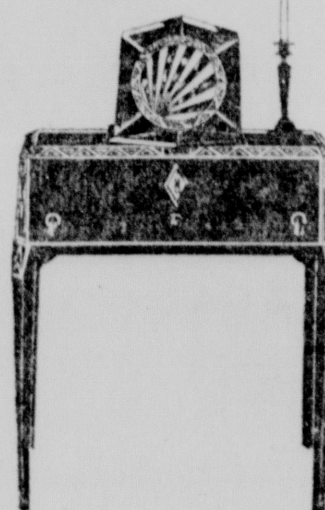

On Nov. 15, 1806, Pike's Peak was first seen and named by members of Lieutenant Zebulon Pike's exploring party of the United States army. The famous peak is located about six miles west of Colorado Springs, Colo.

It was successfully scaled by a party led by Major S. H. Long in 1819, and in 1891 a rack and pinion railroad to the summit was opened, where a searchlight was installed in 1905.

The peak is 14,110 feet above sea level and it commands a magnificent

ARMY TACKLES NEW DESIGN OF PURSUIT PLANE

The Two-Place, Three-Gun Types Are Undergoing Tests

Washington—(UP)—The most vulnerable spot—the tail of the plane—in pursuit flying may become impregnable if the Air Corps tests of a new type two-place, three-gun plane prove successful.

This revolutionary change was intimated in announcement by Assistant Secretary of War Davison that the air corps soon will commence experiments with the new pursuit plane. A new type three place, twin-motored, long distance observation plane also is to be tested, Davison said.

The tests will be made to prove the tactical usefulness and military value of the planes and to determine how they fit into the Army air defense program, Davison announced.

Explains New Defense

"The new pursuit plane, instead of carrying only one man and two machine guns, will carry two men and three guns," Davison pointed out in explaining how it is expected to revise air fighting tactics.

"It is worth while to point out with great emphasis," he continued, "that the rear gun should eliminate the most defenseless spot in pursuit flying. So far, the aim of a pursuit pilot has been to get on the tail of his pursuit opponent in order for him to sign the latter's death warrant, because at present the only pursuit weapons are forward guns in the nose of the ship. With a gun covering the rear of the plane the situation changes as the rear gunner can put up a strong defense and make the position of the attacking pilot extremely unhealthy."

Other Planes Ordered

"The bi-place pursuit plane is no larger than the present single-seater. The gunner is placed in a small compartment with his back to the pilot and is protected from the wind blast of the propeller by a wind shield. Unlike the rear gunner in observation planes, he does not stand up in order to handle his weapon, but is seated with his eyes almost flush with the edge of the cockpit. Fixed to a low post on the fuselage is a machine gun which covers and protects the rear of the plane. It is not possible and widely extended view of the great plains and of a rugged mountainous country. Conifer forests cover the slopes to a height of 11,700 feet above which the mountain consists of bare granite rocks.

at this time to discuss the equipment or performance of the new ship nor the specific uses to which it may be put, for various reasons dictated by policy and also because it is an experimental type which we do not as yet know a great deal about.

"As for the new long distance reconnaissance plane, that, too, is a distinct novelty in Army Air Corps equipment in more than one respect. It is a monoplane equipped with two powerful motors and is designed to fly or climb on one engine. So far our only monoplanes have been in the cargo class. The new observation craft is also believed to have a wider cruising range and higher speed than observation planes now in use. Orders for two experimental craft of this type have been placed."

"These ships carry crews of three men in tandem—observer, pilot and gunner. The observer is located in the front cockpit and on account of the monoplane design he has exceptionally good visibility in all directions. The plane will be equipped with a powerful long range radio set so that it will be in constant communication with its ground station and able to make continuous reports on what the crew observes. The ship will also carry apparatus for day as well as night photography. Machine guns will be mounted in the front and rear cockpits."

CHIEF OF DIXON TELEPHONE CO. TO DELIVER ADDRESS

Louis Pitcher To Go To State Association Meeting

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 15—(AP)—Celebrating their Silver Jubilee, telephone executives and operators of the Illinois Telephone Association will hold their 25th annual convention here, November 20 and 21.

Comprising some 500 companies and operating nearly two million telephones, the association maintains its general offices here, supplying expert administrative counsel and technical service to member companies.

Governor Emmerson will address the convention. Charles W. Hadley, chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission, and a number of men who are authorities on telephone subjects in this country and Canada, are also on the program.

Latest developments in telephone equipment will be studied and matters of interest to executive and technical officers discussed. A special school of instruction will be held for 200 operators representing every county in the state.

Pitcher To Speak.
Louis Pitcher of Dixon, president of the association, will deliver his annual address Wednesday morning. Mr. Pitcher is general manager of the Dixon Home Telephone Company of Dixon. George X. Cannon, president and general manager of Stephenson County Telephone Company of Freeport, will respond to the address of welcome of Mayor Emil Smith of Springfield, opening the convention. Governor Emmerson will speak Thursday morning, and directly after him, T. H. Ashley of Toronto, Canada, special representative of the Bell Telephone company of Canada, will speak.

The social features of the convention include a dinner to the directors and officers of the Association and their guests, a theater party, a dance on the evening of the first day, and a grand banquet and ball on the evening of the second day.

Also on the second day three plays will be publicly presented by the Bell Players Club of Chicago. Members of this dramatic club are all telephone employees and are classed as the finest amateur group in the country. The titles of the plays are: "Too Much Crime," by Richard Wilbur; "Memory Rose," by C. F. Bantlin; and "Evening Dress Indispensable," by R. Pertwee. The first two plays named are new plays this year, and the third play is the one which was presented in the Drama League of Chicago tournament at the Goodman Theater last season.

School For Operators.
Three class rooms for instruction of operators will be conducted the first day, one by Mrs. Mayne Workman, the association's traffic supervisor; one by Miss Ruby Green of Chicago, and Miss Catherine Sullivan, traffic supervisor of the Bell Telephone company, Chicago; as class room principals.

Among the girls drawn from various companies over the state, to demonstrate instruction make school talks will be Miss Florence Welch, chief operator, Mattoon; Mrs. Agnes Thompson, voice instructor, Centralia; Mrs. Ida Van Arsdale, district toll instructor, Rockford; Miss Agnes Bruuns, chief operator, Freeport; Miss Mildred Hutton, chief operator, Monmouth; Miss Anne Romine, district toll instructor, Peoria; Miss Irene Goddall, traffic supervisor, Jacksonville; Miss Marie Hall, chief operator, Jerseyville; Miss Irene Palmgren, chief operator, Galesburg; Miss Vina Braughton, chief operator, Lincoln; Mrs. Agnes Davis, chief operator, Taylorville; Miss Anna Jungers, traffic supervisor, Murphysboro, and Mrs. A. Wilson, Alton.

KONJOLA ENDED STOMACH MISERY AND RHEUMATISM

Lady Had Sought Long and in Vain for Relief Now Medicine Won Splendid Victory.

MRS. ANNA C. KANE.

"I had stomach trouble for so long that finally rheumatism set in," said Mrs. Anna C. Kane, 6824 Michael Court, Chicago, Ill., "and between the two ailments I endured years of misery. After every meal, no matter how light, food soured and formed gas. Then came pain and heart-palpitation. My joints were stiff and sore and it was with pain and difficulty that I got around.
"But Konjola proved to be the medicine I always needed. One bottle brought astonishing results, and in three weeks every sign of rheumatism had vanished and my stomach was back to normal strength. I can eat things that I had not dared touch in five years. I am feeling better and I owe all this splendid new health to Konjola."
Konjola is sold in Dixon, Ill., at FORD HOPKINS DRUG STORE, 123 W. First St., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

KILLED SCHOOLMATE

Cleveland, O., Nov. 14 —(UP)— Benjamin Spants, 16, a school boy, was fatally stabbed by another school boy today.
The boy slayer told police he killed Spants because he was a "tattle-tale."
"Our teacher wrote my name on the 'blackboard' in the bad boys' list," he said, "and when we went to another class Bennie told the teacher there that I had been bad. I called him a tattle-tale and he wanted to fight me."
"We we got outside I drew my knife and we fought. I didn't know he was stabbed until he fell. The teacher ran out then and I went to a classroom and waited for police to come."

DO IT NOW.

IN THE MID-WEST

Chicago, Nov. 15—(AP)—Mid-November, with its Indian summer tang and the incense of burning leaves—football weather—brings to the mid-west tomorrow two of its biggest games. One involves a claim on whatever national title college football may have; the other, in a humbler setting, may determine the championship of the Western Conference.

Rockne's rollicking Ramblers, "keyed" for the game against Jones' Southern California Trojans hold the spotlight in the national race with almost equal interest being shown in the Purdue-Iowa match at Lafayette, Ind.

After many a season of hand-to-mouth existence, Purdue has fallen upon fatter days and tomorrow chances its hopes for the Big Ten championship against the Hawkeyes. With six straight victories over representative eleven of the nation Knute Rockne's team encounters its stiffest test of the season in the Trojan game, upon which rests largely any claim to national honors the Ramblers might put forth. The revenge motive is not lacking either, for the Hoosiers remember the 26 to 12 defeat plastered on them by the coast, eleven last year. Upwards of 110,000 people will jam Soldier Field for this intercollegiate battle.

Polishing up sessions were the rule of the Big Ten opponents last night and Jimmy Phelan drove his Purdue squad through the mud in their last scrimmage before the Iowa game. Further west, Ingwersen piled his squad aboard a train after a light workout. Tomorrow's visit to Lafayette marks the first one for the Hawkeyes in eight years.

State interest is centered on the ancient argument between Chicago and the Illini. Chicago, always a menace to Zuppke's squads loomed larger last night following the announcement that three of the Illini backfield would be on the sidelines because of injuries. Humbert, Peters and Timm are too banged up, according to Zuppke, to play. He plans to start Mills at quarter, Yanuski and Root at the halves and Art Schultz at full.

Stagg has prepared his defenses against a repetition of last year's Illini stunts.

Coach Clarence Spears will send his Minnesota team out to retain possession of the little, brown jug, the trophy for which Michigan and the Gophers have battled since 1908. All available seats—59,800—have been sold for the game. Not a little guesswork surrounds the Michigan starting lineup. Except to say that he would make several changes in the team that beat Harvard, Coach Harry Kipke declined to nominate his starters. At Minneapolis, Spears indicated he would send Wayne Kakeia into left tackle in place of the injured Clarence Munn.

Behind the Northwestern-Indiana game lurks both revenge and the hopes of the former to wind up the season in a tie for the title, depending on Iowa's ability to upset Purdue. For the past two years, Indiana, however, has turned back Northwestern, hence the revenge angle. Indiana, however, has had two weeks rest and seeks to run its string to three straight over the Wildcats.

At Columbus Ohio State meets Kenyon in a practice game, Wisconsin has the day off.

ALONG EASTERN FRONT

New York, Nov. 15—(AP)—The season ends tomorrow for many of the smaller eastern eleven and for Princeton among the larger teams. Princeton men could forestall defeats by Brown, Cornell and Chicago if their team should bottle Albie Booth in the bowl at New Haven and send Ed Wittmer scurrying for winning touchdowns. All experts pick Yale.

Pennsylvania invades New York for its games against Columbia, the nineteenth in a series dating back to 1878. Pennsylvania is the favorite. Amherst would consider victory over Williams tomorrow ample recompense for earlier reverses. Williams is the favorite.

Syracuse will be host to its old foe, Colgate, which has an excellent team.

Unbeaten Cornell plays Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H. even without Marsters, Dartmouth is something of a favorite.

The regular Harvard eleven will start against Holy Cross, and the best that Harvard has doubtless will be required.

Pittsburgh, undefeated and untied, is favorite for its big battle with Carnegie Tech.

West Virginia prays for an upset to aid it against the strong Georgetown outfit, which has yielded just one touchdown this year.

Penn State is prepared to meet a vigorous invasion by Bucknell. New York University will be the underdog in the fray with its guest, Missouri.

Hawaiian Open To Run For Three Days

Honolulu, Nov. 15—(AP)—Over the tricky Waialeale course 33 golfers of the United States, Japan, the Philippine Islands and Hawaii start this afternoon on the first 18 holes of the second annual Hawaiian $6,000 open golf championship.

An imposing array of professionals and amateurs of the mainland will vie with the best golfers of Hawaii for the title won last year by "Big" B. I. Melhorn of New York, who was unable to return to defend it this year.

Eighteen holes will be played tomorrow, another 18 on Saturday and 36 Sunday. Among the mainland golfers here are Horton Smith of Hopkinton, Mo.; Tommy Armour of Detroit; Gene Sarazen and Billy Burke of New York and Johnny Dawson of Chicago.

Two Good Battles On Dempsey Card

Chicago, Nov. 15—(AP)—Vince Dundee of Baltimore, and My Sullivan, St. Paul welterweight contender, will meet tonight at the Chicago Coliseum in Jack Dempsey's third promotional venture, with the possibility of a title bout with Jackie Fields in sight. Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind. and Santiago Zorrilla, the San Blas Indian featherweight, will have another 10-rounds to settle a grudge.

Taylor and Zorrilla have met twice, with the Indian winning by a decisive margin in the second encounter.

Beautiful Christmas Cards await your inspection. Call No. 5 and have books sent for selection. Phone No. 5, B. F. Shaw Printing Co.

TROJANS-IRISH READY FOR BIG FRAY TOMORROW

A Record Crowd To See Game On Soldier Field, Chicago

By PAUL MICKELSON

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15—(AP)—Knute Rockne, keen student of football psychology that he is, has returned to active direction of his Notre Dame forces at the psychological moment.

No Notre Dame team ever had a more unconquerable spirit than the band of gold and blue clad warriors Rockne will throw against Southern California's Trojans on the green-sward of Soldier Field, Chicago, Saturday. Three-fourths of its spirit has been fired by the knowledge that the vital Viking is risking his chances of an early recovery from an infected leg to take command for the crucial battle.

"In all my years at Notre Dame, I have never seen a team so inspired at this one," said an aged faculty member last night as Rockne sent his men through their final strenuous drill for the Trojan game. "They have proved their metal as football players by defeating Indiana, Wisconsin, Navy, Carnegie Tech, Georgia Tech and Drake on successive Saturdays all away from home, and now they are keyed to a psychological point that Coach Rockne has always dreamed about."

Rockne Pleased

Seated in a wheel chair, propped against an ambulance, Rockne worked just as hard and displayed as much spirit as his players in the final rehearsal. Rarely did he single out a player for criticism and when that had its effect, it was in a joking vein. The best regular to the lowest reserve, followed his instructions implicitly and when practice was over even Rockne had to forego his usual pessimistic mien and smile.

"We are going to have a hard battle and we are going to need a lot of breaks to win," he said, "but Southern California is going to meet a ball club Saturday, not fooling."

Every Man Ready

Every member of the varsity squad was in shape for the battle, which may decide Notre Dame's right to claim the national championship. Frank Leahy, tackle, and Manfred Vezie, end, will not be injected into the fracas unless necessary because of injuries, but they are far from definitely out.

The Ramblers undoubtedly will rely considerably on their aerial attack and the wide end runs of Jack Elder and Brill. In the final practice last night, emphasis was laid almost solely on that ground gaining combination.

Enthusiasm was at a high pitch on the campus and in South Bend today. The largest pep meeting in Notre Dame's history was held last night on an open lot by a huge bonfire. Six thousand were present, including the entire student body of 5,000. Twenty-five thousand South Bend fans plan to accompany the Ramblers to the Soldier Field battle ground Saturday.

Rockne will make the trip in an ambulance and direct his team from a wheel chair.

TROJANS ARRIVE

Chicago, Nov. 15—(UP)—The University of Southern California football squad, 50 strong, arrived here today and had its final work-out prior to meeting Notre Dame at Soldier's Field tomorrow.

The Notre Dame team will arrive from South Bend, Ind., tomorrow. The clash between the undefeated Irish of Notre Dame and the once defeated but powerful Trojans of the west coast will attract 115,000 persons, J. Walter Haley, business manager of the Notre Dame athletic department estimates.

Notre Dame ruled about a 6 to 5 favorite today to whip the Trojans and continue on its march to a national championship. There was, however, little betting.

Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame and Coach Howard Jones of Southern California probably will use many reserves, especially if the weather turns bad as is predicted. Each coach has an abundance of substitute material.

The Trojans went through a stiff hour of practice during a train stop at McPherson, Kan. They practiced in four inches of snow and Coach Jones said if Soldier's Field is in a similar condition Saturday he will start Saunders at quarterback instead of Duffield.

Jones received word that Harry Edelson, one of the big cogs in the Trojan backfield, will not be able to come to Chicago for the game.

Chicago Harriers To Meet Illini's Team

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 15—(AP)—Chicago's undefeated cross country team, led by Captain Dale Letts, will engage the University of Illinois harriers Saturday in a dual meet. Chicago is favored to win, following the Maroon victory over Purdue and the comparatively poor showing of the Illini thus far this season.

RHEUMATIC PAIN OF YEARS ENDED; GLY-CAS PRAISED

"Dollar Spent for this Wonderful Remedy Did More for Me than All the Others," She Declares.

"The relief Gly-Cas has given me from rheumatism of four years is so wonderful that it just seems like magic," Mrs. L. E. Kidder, respected lady of 1639 Batenan St., Galesburg, Ill., recently said of this amazing new vegetable discovery which hundreds of former sufferers continue to praise as they never praised any other medicine before.

MRS. L. E. KIDDER.

"With the terrible rheumatism pains and stiffness in my arms, limbs and joints, these past four years, I could not sleep at night and was in a miserable condition," she continued. "My arms and limbs were so crippled and would seem to go to sleep, with that tingling sensation running through them and besides the rheumatism, no matter what I ate, I'd have to suffer from gas formations after my meals. Finally my husband started using Gly-Cas and it was helping him so much that I decided to give it a chance in my case and I have surely never used such an effective remedy before. Why, it has acted like magic! In just a short time the awful rheumatism soreness and stiffness of these past years was gone from my arms and limbs, I sleep well now and eat anything I desire without even any bother from my stomach. Or all the other medicines I've taken, not one could do for me what this dollar box of Gly-Cas has!"

Gly-Cas is sold in Dixon at the Campbell White Cross Pharmacy, 202 Franklin Grove, G. S. Blevins, Polo, C. R. Clothier, Ashton, G. R. Charters, Amboy, Aschenbrenner Drug, Compton, W. H. Hills, Rochelle, Barker & Sullivan and by leading druggists in all surrounding towns.—Adv.

THE "COLD" SEASON
By Henry Albert, M. D.,
Des Moines, Iowa.

(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

This is the season of the year when colds make their appearance. The first extensive wave of "colds" of the fall season usually appears in October.

Colds cost money. Tens of thousands of days' work are lost each year and efficiency for countless other days is reduced because workers have colds. Besides the money loss, much joy is taken out of life by the misery of having a cold. Yet statistics show that people in general have an average of nearly two colds per person a year. At this proportionate rate the people of the United States should have about 220,000,000 colds during the "cold" season, not to mention the number of "summer colds," which are accounted for in part by hay fever and other protein sensitization. The "common cold" is so common that it has been called "the universal disease."

Some people think that they take cold when they get chilled. Chilling may reduce body resistance, but of itself does not cause a cold. Chilling seems to have the worst results when a person goes from a hot room into the cold outside. To avoid this sudden change it is recommended that inside temperatures should be kept relatively low in homes and offices. Experiments show that school children do the best work at a temperature margin of 68. Allowing two degrees margin, the proper temperature for living rooms and offices is 70. Higher temperatures reduce efficiency and resistance.

The act of sneezing and coughing, or even vigorous talking, may throw a spray from the mouth and nose for several feet. Currents of air may carry the particles which often contain germs of disease, even as far as twelve feet. Persons who get in range of the spray of a person with a cold are liable to "catch" cold.

Like other communicable diseases, colds are often spread through contact with the hand. It has been stated that perhaps 90 per cent of cases of communicable diseases may be hand-borne.

Some rules to prevent colds:

1. Keep the temperature of the house and office at not above 70.
2. Wear clothes appropriate to the temperature.
3. Stay at home when you have a cold.
4. Cover nose and mouth when sneezing or coughing.
5. Keep away from houses where anyone is ill with a cold, influenza, pneumonia or other disease.
6. Avoid over-fatigue or sudden change in temperature.
7. Wash your hands before eating or handling food for other people.
8. Do not spit. Spitting spreads disease.
9. Avoid acidosis by including in the daily diet a sufficient amount of milk, vegetables, some fresh fruit, and plenty of pure water.

U. S. Commissioner Will Go To Trial

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 14—(AP)—Trial of Clarence W. Johnson, who became United States Commissioner at West Palm Beach, Fla., while under indictment for an alleged shortage of government funds when he was Internal Revenue Collector at Bloomington, Ill., will begin in federal court next Tuesday.

Commissioner Johnson was indicted in 1927 after an inventory disclosed discrepancies in his funds. He is alleged to have disappeared and lived for two years in Florida. On a recent visit to relatives in Bloomington he was arrested.

Johnson said he had considered the matter closed and that a mistake in bookkeeping was responsible for the apparent shortage.

Parks Woman Has Officers Stumped

Camden N. J., Nov. 14.—(UP)—Authorities admitted today that Gladys May Parks, former vaudeville entertainer, had them stumped in their efforts to make her change her story that the deaths of Dorothy Rogers 4, and Timothy Rogers 2, had been accidental.

"We just can't do a thing with her," Prosecutor Baldwin said. "She called every witness a liar when his statement differed from hers. She has called me a liar so often I am beginning to doubt my own veracity. Everybody is lying, the way she puts it."

A psychological move which authorities hoped might make the woman tell more details of the deaths of the two children, who had been placed in her care by their father, Alan Rogers, an insurance agent, had been unsuccessful yesterday.

Miss Parks was taken to the morgue at Pleasantville and compelled to look upon the dismembered skeleton of young Timothy while Baldwin questioned her, but she firmly clung to her denials.

Bishop Anderson Of Chicago Is Honored

Washington, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Rt. Reverend Charles P. Anderson, Bishop of Chicago and Vice-Chairman of the House of Bishops, has been elected Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

Election of the 65-year-old dignitary by the House of Bishops in executive session here yesterday was a complete surprise and was described as a compromise move. The meeting had been deadlocked for eight hours and Bishop Anderson was chosen on the 16th ballot.

Anderson will complete the unexpired term of the late John Gardner Murray, who died last month during services of the House of Bishops at Atlantic City.

Chicago Negress Seeks House Seat

Chicago, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary C. Clarke, Negro, will announce tonight her candidacy for a seat in the lower House of the Illinois General Assembly, the first woman of her race to run for the legislature. Mrs. Clarke heads the Illinois Colored Women's Republican League.

Her district, comprising a south side Chicago section, last year sent a Negro to the legislature for the first time. Her congressional district has the only Negro Congressman, Oscar De Priest.

Wants Secret Vote On New Dry Statute

Washington, Nov. 14.—(UP)—A bill to legalize 12 per cent wine and 3 per cent beer, accompanied by a resolution providing for secret ballots thereon by the House and Senate, was introduced today by Rep. Bloom, Dem., N. Y.

"When secrecy is the only means by which truth can be revealed I favor it for this particular purpose," Bloom said.

His bill would amend the Volstead act by defining the suggested percentage as non-intoxicating. A second resolution would provide for secrecy.

"Any number of Senators and Representatives," Bloom said, "perhaps a majority, vote diametrically the opposite of their own convictions in order to conform to what they conceive to be the convictions of their constituents, whether a liquor measure is before them."

Graff Building Is Not Sold by Bids

The property belonging to the Graff estate occupied by the Vaile & O'Malley clothing store, was offered at a public sale held at the court house yesterday at 1:30 and remained unsold. A reserved bid was submitted by the attorney for the estate which was not raised.

Lost Million on "The Street"

She played the piano, and won fame—played the market, and lost a fortune. Internationally noted for her beauty, wealth and musical talent, 19-year-old Margaret Shotwell, above, has admitted losing nearly $1,000,000—almost her entire fortune—in the recent Wall Street stock crash. She'll move from a luxurious hotel suite in New York to a small apartment, and says she must work harder than ever at her music.

Living Poster Heralds Aid Show

This beautiful living poster of the "Spirit of Flight" was used at Los Angeles to announce the opening of the Western Aircraft exposition. The young lady who forms the central figure is Katherine Truett, one of California's youngest women flyers.

International Beauty Takes Flying Vacation

Claire Luce, whom two continents have variously acclaimed as the most beautiful aviatrix, the loveliest dancer, the prettiest trans-Atlantic commuter and the fairest of actresses, again is on her way to Europe—this time for a three-weeks flying vacation. For she pilots her own, does Claire, and she has made arrangements to dash about England and France in a light plane. For several seasons she has appeared alternately on Paris, London and New York stages.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

MRS. RHODES, said to keep a board of money in her home on the second floor of Mrs. Rhodes' boarding house, is strangled to death by "HONNIE DUNDEE," a detective, a witness, "LIEUT. STRAWN," attaches significance to the interference "Had Penny" made by A.P.S. Mrs. Rhodes' parrot, "Susie," falls at once on EMIL STAYER, former boarder whom Mrs. Rhodes has accused of trying to rob her, and who left town hurriedly. Dundee, behind a screen, notes the scene. Strawn, under DOWD, newcomer out of work, who insists he was asleep in his room at 12:10. She denies being there that night and of arousing her anger by confessing her engagement to WALTER STYLES, another boarder.

Styles corroborates Norma's confession that she came to his room to tell him of the interview and confesses he was angry. Magnus says he typed until 12:15. DUNDEE, STAYER explains his absence from her room at the boarding house by saying she was in the kitchen robbing the safe. Dundee refers to a mysterious "D" of whom she lived in dread.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XIX

"GOOD MORNING, Mrs. Rhodes." Am I the first one down?" Dundee greeted his landlady cheerfully as he entered the dining room.

Mrs. Rhodes' haggard eyes brightened at sight of him. "You look as if you'd slept like a baby," she told him, as she poured his coffee and then offered him cream for his raspberries. "I didn't sleep a wink myself, what with waiting on that no-account dusty—sick as a pup he was, when he finally woke up—and worrying over what happened here last night."

"I'm awfully sorry," the boy sympathized sincerely. "What does the paper say? Have they caught Sevier?"

"No, but I hope to the Lord they do," Mrs. Rhodes sighed. "If this thing isn't cleared up in a hurry, my business will be ruined. The reporters have been here since day break, taking pictures of the house and trying to interview me. Cold comfort I gave them!"

"That's right," Dundee said. "Let them get their news from the police."

"Asking me where poor Mrs. Hogarth came from, and who her relatives were, and—"

"I'm afraid I'm going to bother you with just the same questions," Dundee interrupted, apologetically. "You see, Mrs. Rhodes, I read Mrs. Hogarth's diary after I went to bed this morning. And on the first of the month she invariably recorded the receipt of a letter from 'S'. Can you tell me who S. is, Mrs. Rhodes? She must be a daughter or a near relative. She must be notified of Mrs. Hogarth's death, of course, but I have no clue to her full name."

MRS. RHODES shook her head. "I'm afraid I can't help you, Mr. Dundee. Mrs. Hogarth received a registered letter on the first day of every month for the last five years, unless the first fell on Sunday. But I never saw one of those letters myself. The postman always took it upstairs for Mrs. Hogarth's signature on the return receipt. As close friends as we were, she never showed me one of the letters, or mentioned it in any way. I do know, though, that she burned each one after she read it."

"H'm," Dundee was very thoughtful. "Today is the last day of June, and tomorrow, Monday, is July first. Since the postoffice is closed on Sunday, I suppose there's nothing to do but to wait until he brings the regular first-of-the-month letter. . . . By the way, Mrs. Rhodes, did it ever occur to you, knowing Mrs. Hogarth as intimately as you did, that she had no 'miser's board' to will to anyone?"

Mrs. Rhodes looked startled, then nodded slowly. "To tell you the truth, I always had my doubts. There were a lot of little things, but the most important one was that she always paid her board right after the letter came. Once—about a year ago, I think it was—her letter didn't come until the third of the month, and she didn't pay her board until that afternoon. And she seemed nearly crazy with worry about the letter."

"How did she pay her board—the denunciation of the bills, I mean?"

"That was funny, too. Her board and room was only $10 a month. Of course, I lost money on her the last two or three years, but when I said something to her once about being obliged to raise the price, the cost of living being what it is, she carried on something dreadful, so I dropped it."

"So, if she received a $50 bill each month from S., she managed to live on it," Dundee suggested thoughtfully. "When and where did she get the parrot, Mrs. Rhodes?"

"I don't know where she got it from, but I do remember when she got it. It came by express as a Christmas present the first year she was here. She came here to live in May, 1924."

"H'm," Dundee was very thoughtful. "Today is the last day of June, and tomorrow, Monday, is July first. Since the postoffice is closed on Sunday, I suppose there's nothing to do but to wait until he brings the regular first-of-the-month letter. . . . By the way, Mrs. Rhodes, did it ever occur to you, knowing
